

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- Chapter 1. The Psychology of Suspects' Decision-Making during Interrogation (Michel St-Yves and Nadine Deslauriers-Varin).
- Chapter 2. A Typology of Denial Strategies by Suspects in Criminal Investigations (Stephen Moston and Geoffrey M. Stephenson).
- Chapter 3. A Structured Model for Investigative Interviewing of Suspects (Jannie van der Sleen).
- Chapter 4. Finding False Confessions (Peter J. van Koppen).
- Chapter 5. The Investigation of Terrorist Offences in the United Kingdom: The Context and Climate for Interviewing Officers (John Pearse).
- Chapter 6. From Criminal Justice to Control Process: Interrogation in a Changing Context (David Dixon).
- Chapter 7. Major Crime (Investigative Powers) Act 2004: The Chief Examiner and Coercive Powers (Damien B. Maguire).
- Chapter 8. The Relation between Consistency and Accuracy of Eyewitness Testimony: Legal versus Cognitive Explanations (Ronald P. Fisher, Neil Brewer and Gregory Mitchell).
- Chapter 9. The Cognitive Interview: Research and Practice across the Lifespan (Robyn E. Holliday, Charles J. Brainerd, Valerie F. Reyna and Joyce E. Humphries).
- Chapter 10. Investigative Interviewing in the Courtroom: Child Witnesses under Cross-Examination (Rachel Zajac).
- Chapter 11. Recovered Memories (James Ost).
- Chapter 12. Obtaining and Interpreting Eyewitness Identification Test Evidence: The Influence of Police-Witness Interactions (Neil Brewer and Gary L. Wells).
- Chapter 13. Recent Developments in Eyewitness Identification Procedures in the United Kingdom (Tim Valentine, Carwyn Hughes and Rod Munro).
- Chapter 14. A Method to Enhance Person Description: A Field Study (Samuel Demarchi and Jacques Py).
- Chapter 15. Recent Developments in North American Identification Science and Practice (Steven D. Penrod and Margaret Bull Kovera).
- Chapter 16. Truthfulness in Witnesses' and Suspects' Reports (A. Daniel Yarmey).
- Chapter 17. Evaluating Truthfulness: Detecting Truths and Lies in Forensic Contexts (Barry S. Cooper, Hugues Herve and John C. Yuille).